From Intellect to Intuition

Evoking the Souls of the Nations

“Intuition is a comprehensive grip of the principle of universality, and when it is functioning there is, momentarily at least, a complete loss of the sense of separateness.” Alice Bailey

When the heart and mind work in unison the gap between intellect and intuition is bridged and thinking in the heart occurs. The Work of evoking the souls of the nations requires such thinking in every field of activity.
