Keynote: Let the Path of Recognitions Lead to Group Revelation.

Much is heard today of the New Age, of the coming revelation, of the imminent leap forward into an intuitive recognition of that which has hitherto been only dimly sensed. That which is to be revealed lies all around us, and within us. It is the significance of all that is embodied in form, the meaning behind the appearance, the reality veiled by the symbol, the truth expressed in substance.

Paradoxically, this is both illusion and reality for revelation entails transfiguration from individual focus and striving to a group focus which, in turn, unveils a deeper purpose.
