

Lucis Trust/Arcane School

Carving the path to unity: The art of a nation

“Carving the Path”

Alice A. Bailey

*Unity is a necessary ideal and the counterpart of Good Will. ...
A large group of men and women of goodwill will work together, albeit independently, and will make available, in times of world crisis, a prompt and universal public opinion of such force that it can not be ignored.*

Never has there been such a great need to understand the changes in consciousness that occur that occur everywhere among people. As the soul of the world sheds light on humanity, its light reveals the path to travel towards unity. The work of the Lucis Trust and the Arcane School is aimed at supporting the transformation of consciousness, so that this unity will take place: between the soul and the personality, between the soul of the world and humanity.
